NYC FAST FACT

THE WORLD'S FIRST MUSEUM EXCLUSIVELY FOR CHILDREN WAS THE BROOKLYN CHILDREN'S MUSEUM (1899)

God is planting seeds of growth all over NYU.

Brianna, a student Ashley discipled, has experienced radical transformation since she came to NYU. She arrived freshman year paralyzed in life and in her faith. As she brought her fears and doubts before God, He powerfully answered her and gave her direction and confidence in Christ. Pray He sustains her now as she studies abroad this semester in Madrid, that she would treasure Him and make Him known.

MARY, one of Ashley's AIA leaders, is leveraging her connections and passions on the softball team by talking openly about her faith. Recently, one of her teammates was struck by how instrumental her faith was in her handling depression. She invited Mary to write a full article on the NYU website to share her story.

JOHN, a theater student David discipled, is one of the boldest and friendliest freshman he's met! David challenged him to pray for 3 non Christian friends to eat with and share the gospel. As they left, someone on John's list walked by, said hi, then entered the cafeteria.

John's expression changed and he stared at David. 'I can share the gospel with him right now!' John turned and did just that!

JOSHUA, another Tisch student, expressed interest in Cru. He'd grown up hearing about Christianity, but had questions (How could Jesus be the only way? Why did He have to die?). David explained the gospel and how only Christ meets our soul's need, removes our sin, reunites us to God and recovers our purpose. As David finished, he simply responded, 'This is absolutely what I need,' and he prayed! Praise God for a new brother!
