SPRING BREAKERS

"I'm just a freshman, but God gave me just the right person to share with!" Cam, freshman

Spring Breaker from SC, led Lehman sophomore, Yazlin, to Christ. But it was her doubts and questions afterward that Cam felt spiritually empowered to address with biblical and relevant answers. He and David then met up with her the next day to work through some basic follow up lessons! It was a great way to start two weeks of intensive evangelism aided by Spring Breakers from around the country. Here's how it ended:

- 200+ spring breakers
- 20 NYC campuses
- 1,200+ spiritual conversations
- 300+ we shared gospel with & brought to point of decision
- 22 students came to Christ!!

THE BRONX

David led the group of Spring Breakers to Lehman College in the Bronx both weeks.

They saw 2 students come to Christ (including Yazlin) and also found 6 believers who expressed serious interest in being coached to start a movement. They've already met several times and taken steps of faith. Pray God continues to sustain, protect and lead them as they meet with David and reach this campus.

FOR LOVE OF THE GAME

During these weeks, David also connected with Lehman's baseball coach. Halfway through their phone conversation the coach exclaimed, 'I don't care if it affects my job, my players need to hear what you're telling me.' He invited him to share briefly with the team how faith in Jesus actually matters in their schoolwork and on the field. The following week David came; 9 of the 13 expressed interest in knowing about a personal relationship with God. Will, a believer already, has met with David every week since to plan and pray about reaching his teammates with the gospel.
