Girls' Night Out

Marian Jordan helps college girls experience the gospel finding significance and love in all the wrong places. It was Jesus who ultimately fulfilled the love she had always searched for, and she invited the room full of women to enter into this relationship, too. Thirty-seven women indicated decisions for Christ! Praise God!

It's the third time we've seen the in-demand evangelist hosted (twice at IUP and now once in NYC), and each time she's touched the lives of students on campus. One girl this time shared, "I've been feeling insecure, lonely, and unworthy... But your words really impacted me and I thank you. I felt emptiness inside and tried to fill it with food, friends, and (unrequited) loves, but it wasn't enough. Now I know that it is God who I need."

Please pray for our team as we seek to follow up with these new believers. We will be attempting to follow up individually as well as organizing a book club using materials related to the event.

Was Carrie Bradshaw on to something when she said, "I'm looking for love. Real love. Ridiculous, inconvenient, consuming, can't-live-without-each-other-love?" Nearly two hundred women from all over the city gathered to hear Marian Jordan Ellis speak about whether the Sex & The City character was right. These college students hung on every word as Marian shared her testimony of

NYC Fast Fact

Phantom of the Opera is the longest running show on Broadway with over 11,000 performances

The Power Of An Invite

Michelle, QC freshman, has steadily been connecting to our Queens College (QC) leading women (Liz, Suzanne and Shirley among others). Though Michelle is still exploring Cru, she took a small step of faith and invited her non-Christian friend, Rhonda*, to join her at the Girls' Night Out event. As we collected response cards after the event, we found that Rhonda was one of the thirty-seven that indicated a decision! Now Ashley is set to meet with her and Michelle to explore this decision and take the next step!

Bible Thought:

"I do not ask You to take them out of the world, but to keep them from the evil one."

Jesus in John 17:15

Book Recommendation:

Discipling Women
by Lori Joiner

Please Pray

- We could engage and help mature these 37 women in their faith. Pray especially for Rhonda* to grow in fellowship and depth as she meets with Ashley and Michelle
- Deeper personal evangelism culture would take root with our students
- NYC is going to Radiate! Pray for preparation and recruiting efforts (www.radiatedc.com)
- 10 million multiplying disciples sent into the world by the year 2020

Praise God!

- Nearly 200 students heard the gospel and 37 indicated decisions!
- How GNO's encouraged our women

Thank you again for your prayers and hearts for Christ!

Until all hear, (Col 4:3-4)
